

MOUNTAIN VIEW CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS

*M*ountain View Center for the Performing Arts is the vibrant heart of downtown Mountain View, home of world-class theatre, dance, and music along with visual arts exhibits, lectures, and corporate events. Since 1991, millions of patrons have experienced amazing performances on the Center's three stages. The Center's theaters and support spaces may be booked for performing arts events, meetings, conferences and educational activities. Call 650.903.6556 for booking information.

MainStage: The Center's premiere theater seats 600 with a dramatic 50-foot proscenium, excellent sight lines, and superb acoustics.

SecondStage: This intimate, octagonal theater offers moveable seating for as many as 200 people, with incredible versatility for any type of performance, event or meeting.

ParkStage: Adjacent to Pioneer Park, the Center's outdoor amphitheater offers lawn seating for approximately 300.

MVCPA is ideally located at 500 Castro Street (corner of Castro and Mercy streets) in downtown Mountain View. Parking is available in the Civic Center garage located directly under the Center and in the Bryant Street parking structure.

The Center is a short five-block walk from Caltrain, VTA Light Rail and VTA buses at the Downtown Mountain View Transit Center. Bicycle racks are available on the plaza.
